

Professional Biography
JUDITH E. GROSS

Judith Gross is the founder and principal of JG Advisory Services LLC, which provides consulting services to hedge funds, investment advisers and related industry service providers on compliance and training matters. JG Advisory Services was founded in June, 2005.

Ms. Gross is a FINRA arbitrator and has served on multiple cases for both the NASD and the NY Stock Exchange. She has also served as an expert witness on several litigation cases related to the hedge fund industry.

Ms. Gross' prior experience on Wall Street includes:

- Senior Vice President, Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. in the Alternative Investments Group, Asset Management Division, 9 years.
- MetLife, Counsel, Securities Investments Division of Law Department, 8 years
- Mudge Rose law firm, municipal finance group, 2 years.

A member of the Round Table Group, Inc., Ms. Gross has been an invited speaker at numerous hedge fund industry events and conferences. She is the author of several desktop accessible training modules for hedge fund employees, which are located on the JG Advisory Services website at www.jgadvisory.com.

Ms. Gross holds a BS from Cornell University, a Masters in City and Regional Planning from Harvard University and a JD from Hofstra University.

Contact Info:

Judith Gross, Esq.
jg@jgadvisory.com
917 375-6852